

Joseph M Johnson Knights of Columbus Council 7538 2024 Survey

A retreat has been proposed for the council. The purpose of the retreat is to do strategic planning on where the council should focus its efforts in 2024. The intended results of the retreat are to gather information from worthy knights of the council that will provide a direction for the council to move in and also to provide a framework to support planning for the 2024 budget. Please complete the following questions. Your responses will help frame the agenda for the retreat.
