

Knights of Columbus

Brother James,

We are happy to announce Derek as the new General Agent for your area. Derek has been working for the Knights for over 7 years and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to you and your family. Derek can help provide your family with financial security through our line of quality insurance products - whole and term life, long-term care and disability income - and retirement annuities, and several investment advisors in his agency can provide you with investment options through our affiliate, Knights of Columbus Asset Advisors.

Derek consistently helps to provide his members with the financial protection they need.

Some areas of expertise he can advise you on include:

- Insurance solutions to help provide your family with financial protection
- Savings for retirement
- Passing on wealth to children and/or grandchildren

Do you want to help protect your family, grow your assets and give charitably – all in alignment with your Catholic faith? Helping brother Knights and other Catholics align their finances with their faith is a concrete example of how we empower members to live their Catholic faith in all areas of their lives.

We are proud to present Derek as your new General Agent based on his work ethic, honesty and integrity with his members day in and day out. Our Knights of Columbus Agents carry out Blessed Michael McGivney's mission of protecting the widow and the orphan by providing exceptional financial services to our members and their families. Derek and his team can be a valuable resource to help you identify your needs and reach your financial goals. Now is the perfect time to review your financial portfolio by allowing Derek or one of his agents to perform a complimentary needs analysis to help ensure you are protected.

I encourage you to meet with Derek and his team to discover the many ways Knights of Columbus can help you financially safeguard your future. You can contact Derek and his team using the information below – reach out today to start the process.
