Virgil S. Hicks, Jr. was a founding member of the Joseph M. Johnson council of the Knights of Columbus. He was the Grand Knight in 1987 and active member until he passed away in March, 2008. His family is testimony to his strong belief in getting a good education. In his memory, this scholarship is awarded to children to attend a Catholic high school or any accredited college, university or school.

The Joseph M. Johnson Council of the Knights of Columbus was founded in 1980 through the efforts of the men of St. Ann's parish in Ashland and St. Mary of the Annunciation parish in Ladysmith. It is named after Joseph Johnson, who was a tireless volunteer for many worthwhile causes in the parishes.

Thanks to the efforts of Father Michael J. McGivney, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven and some of his parishioners, the Connecticut state legislature on March 29, 1882, officially chartered the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society. The Order is still true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity. The Knights was formed to render financial aid to members and their families. Mutual aid and assistance are offered to sick, disabled and needy members and their families. Social and intellectual fellowship is promoted among members and their families through educational, charitable, religious, social welfare, war relief and public relief works.
